	12.4.2004 Smt. Meena Shastri, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Sanjay S. Agrawal, Panel Lawyer on advance copy. Heard. Counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was appointed as watchman in the year 1997. The grievance of the petitioner is that his service has been terminated vide order 02.12.1999 (Annexure P-3) without giving opportunity of hearing and without following the norms. Smt. Shastri contends that if Swarn Jayanti Swa Rojgar Yojana is started then one week before he may be taken on duty, but it could not be done. Learned counsel further submits that Swarn Jayanti Swa Rojgar Yojana has been restarted and the petitioner made representation vide Annexure P-11, which has not been decided till date. Having heard, and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within 15 days, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law by passing reasoned order as early as possible preferably within two months from the date of receipt of the representation. It is made clear that if any grievance still remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. C.C. as per rules.
